

Illinois and Virginia CPS' Conspire to Steal and Sex Traffic Children

The Common Sense Show

When holding on to sensitive information, I have found it prudent to go public as I believe it gives the greatest chance of not becoming a statistic such as Breitbart, Hastings, Clancy and appropriately in this case, Nancy Schaefer. Subsequently, I am publishing notice of the fact that the state of Virginia Child Protective Services is sex-trafficking in children that it illegally seizes and that the Illinois Child Protective Services is cooperating with Virginia in order to complete a child abduction with sex-trafficking connections.

Obamacare and Child Abduction

Nearly three weeks ago, I wrote an investigative article which exposed a massive conspiracy designed to separate parents from their children and an obscure element of Obamacare would subsequently give the government complete control over your children.

In the article, it was documented that Human, Health and Services (HHS) and their state level emissary, Children Protective Services (CPS) are engaged in a conspiracy which will culminate in (1) the Agenda 21 designed breakdown of the family; (2) the eradication of any semblance of parental authority over children; and, (3) unbridled and unfettered access to seizing children from the home in unlimited quantities for whatever nefarious purposes (e.g. child sex trafficking) which might dictate the volume of child seizures.

Based upon the emails and comments the article generated, it became clear that most people saw the threat to American children as being real. However, there were the typical allegations of fear mongering and falsifying facts and conclusions by the programmed sheeple in this country who would have everyone believe that there is no such thing as a conspiracy in which two, or more, bad people would ever jointly plan to do something nefarious. Well, it did not take more than 24 hours after publishing the article for me to receive notification of a case that would parallel the hysteria I was promoting in the April 29, 2014 article.

The case, in question, involves a single mom, Monika Wesolowski, who just happens to be a State Department employee with a security clearance. I am vaguely aware that some of her work involves ambassadors and the White House. Please note that if Wesolowski can be targeted by the new Obamacare “child protection” guidelines, given her lofty federal employee status, then we should conclude that no parent and no child is safe from the evil intentions of this administration and some of its sex trafficking minions.

With absolute certainty, it can be stated that the Virginia Child Protective Services and its partner, the Department of Family Services, along with the Illinois Child Protective Services are conspiring to steal children and sex traffic these same kids

A Quick Review of Obamacare “Child Protection” Provisions

This unprecedented program mandates a partnership between various United Nations organizations and ICF, acting on behalf of HHS, CPS and Obamacare (i.e. The Affordable Health Care Act). The evidence demonstrates that Obamacare is representative of the fact that our families are living in a Hitler Youth Movement hellish nightmare in which the state owns and can seize your children for whatever reason and purpose they deem appropriate.

After reviewing HHS, CPS and UN documents. What is being presently reported in the alternative media is merely the tip of the iceberg with regard to HHS’ intentions toward the ultimate outcome of the children in this country. After reviewing the documents, there is no doubt that Obama is representing international interests which will seek to remove as many children as possible from the homes of their parents in the spirit of the Hitler Youth Movement.

In the 110 page HHS/CPS manual, written by the UN think tank group ICF, on behalf of HHS, now serves as the field manual for CPS child snatching operations. The new “variables” which comprise child neglect, worthy of government intervention is frightening beyond any words I can find to express their undisguised intentions.

Under the HHS/CPS policy manual, they label any “grounding” of a child as neglect by isolation. There are no time frames set forth which constitutes isolation and it is left to the field representative. This obviously erodes parental discipline.

If your child is judged to be underachieving in school, this is referred to as educational neglect and is worthy of governmental intervention. Further, if your child is absent for five days in any one month from school, the same allegation would be made against the parent.

If your child has ADD or ADHD, you could be accused of neglect because the document details how this can be somehow caused by poor nutrition, although the variables associated with the cause are not specified.

Of course, no Obama inspired program would be complete without an attack upon the Second Amendment. Obamacare is no exception as one of the criteria for child neglect are parents who are also gun owners.

I am sure that now some of the sheeple remember this referenced article where provided detailed documentation on how Obamacare allowed for CPS to steal children for nefarious purposes. They said it just was not true. Unfortunately, it is true and I now have a shining example of this horrendous program in action.

Monika Wesolowski and Son Dylan

The father of Monika Wesolowski and the grandfather of Dylan sent Monika the article described above to his daughter. This prompted an introductory email sent by Ms. Wesolowski to myself. After reading Monika’s email, I had flashbacks to the Stacy Lynne case that I have been working on since December of 2011, when Stacey’s son, Jaden, was stolen by a Judge Julie Kunce Field who was a former consultant to the IMF and World Bank. Stacy’s was not accused of committing any crime except for publicly opposing the Agenda 21 policies in her hometown of Ft. Collins, Colorado. For her public advocacy, she now has no contact with her son and has no idea where the boy is living.

Wesolowski is guilty of even less than Stacy Lynne, who was guilty of nothing. She is guilty of being a conservative working in an ultra liberal environment. She has an NRA bumper sticker on her car, her screen saver promotes conservative causes and she is not personally and morally on board with the "gay" and "green" agenda that has come to dominate every federal administration under the most liberal President in American history. Wesolowski does believe that she has been targeted because of Catholic based, conservative views. She has been audited by the IRS and "randomly drug tested" by her employer. Before you dismiss these occurrences as random events, keep in mind that the enforcement agent for the new snatch and grab policies of Obamacare is the IRS and that this President has been exposed for using the IRS to harass Tea Party members and uncooperative members of the mainstream media.

Wesolowski Makes Contact

On April 30, 2014, I received a lengthy email from Monika Wesolowski who detailed how her son Dylan was stolen from her home without any legitimate provocation.

On 4/30/2014 11:07 AM, Monika Wesolowski wrote:

Dave,

I read your article in the RBN about how HHS is taking away children through means of CPS. This happened to me in December of 2013, the night before my son turned five years old. He is on the spectrum of Autism with PDD, sensory processing, and behavioral disorders. He is in special education. Our lives were turned upside in a matter of hours. I had no idea prior that this would happen. They came in SWAT gear to my home, with CPS arriving over an hour later. The ordeal lasted from 8:30pm to past 11pm. I did not let them in my home, and in this way they classified me as a danger. They claimed I choked my son 2 days prior and therefore he was in imminent danger of life and that they were taking him away. I never hurt my son. It was the first sign of a skin condition, eczema patches, that my son started having. He had one small round one on the back of his neck. This is what they used against me. They did not take him to a doctor but ruled on hearsay. Once in temporary custody of my neighbors, we immediately took my son to the pediatrician, who claimed there was no injury and no bruising. (EDITOR'S NOTE: I HAVE THE PEDIATRICIAN'S REPORT AND THE APPEARANCE OF A RASH WAS SUBSTANTIATED, NOT BRUISING FROM SOME MYTHICAL ATTACK). She stated my son had a skin condition and provided medication. CPS was very angry that we took him to the doctor. They used the doctor's report against me saying I coerced the doctor and that I was trying to use the medication as a cover. I was never arrested or criminally charged, rather my son was taken based off hearsay and Civil Court Order, an Emergency Removal. Once in court, the judge refused to incorporate any medical records. By this time my son was in a foster home of two gay men. I am Roman Catholic and have been very opposed to the foster home. By the time this went to court, there were two medical records as my son was taken to the pediatrician while in foster care and given medication for a second eczema (dermatitis) rash. He has had a few of these rashes since the ordeal started.

My son was kidnapped by CPS in order to traffic him into foster care. He is in a home of two gay dads. I don't know what to do. I live in Fairfax County, Virginia, which is now exploding with more cases such as mine. I am having a hard time getting a lawyer, no one wants to oppose the system. People are afraid. They have now accused my son's daycare of child abuse. The daycare testified on my behalf in court, so they are now accusing the daycare of abusing my son and pulling out his hair, leaving bald marks, and putting poop in his face. I know this is all false also. When they removed my son from my home, they took him out of the daycare too, so these were new charges, even though he was no longer attending. They are trying to scare everyone around me.

I am a good mother, and my son has developmental disabilities. This was used to interrogate and coerce my son, and kidnap him. The father started this mess when he lost custody and all appeals, I had won sole legal custody. Two months later they were taking my son away and the ex now had the chance to modify custody. He added false claims of abuse and has been working with CPS and DFS (Dept. of Family Services) to keep our son in foster care.

I need help or advice. Can you put my story out for people to see? Can you help me expose this more, or maybe let me know if you know of anyone that can help?

Kind Regards,

Monika Wesolowski

Falls Church, VA

Monika went to court to try and get her son removed from CPS custody. She took the pediatrician's report as well as the CPS psychological investigation which stated that Monika posed no threat to her son and the fact that the boy had not been injured. Amazingly, the judge would not allow the evidence to be entered into testimony leaving with the conundrum of this being her word vs. the word of CPS.

Monika has sent me the following in a later email:

Attached are also the pediatrician records I tried to use in court, with sworn affidavits. The 12/9/13 is the evaluation to prove I did not injure my son. The full CPS report is attached too. It's full lies and fabrication, they refused to also use my maiden name despite that I was divorced at this point. They also listed me as Hispanic in one section in order to justify their funding....

Speaking of funding, All CPS organizations receive $ 5,000 for each child taken from the home and that money is paid by HHS. If the child and mother are minorities, the funding stipend increases, hence the Hispanic designation.

Many of these new wards of the state simply disappear and are never heard from again as was the case in Oklahoma. This is the kind of case that got former Georgia State Senator Nancy Schaefer killed for daring to expose the criminal connection between CPS and child sex trafficking done by organizations like DynCorps and HSBC Bank..

Child sex trafficking is big business and the business is run like a Mafia organization which eliminates with extreme prejudice those persons who would expose the practice. As an aside, I am all too cognizant of the fact who and what I am dealing with. Therefore, I have distributed the Wesolowski "proof" of these claims to trusted sources for all the obvious reasons. This article also represents a kind of insurance policy as well.

Monika Wesolowski Can Prove What She Claims

Rather than placing Dylan with family and close friends as a foster care arrangement, CPS has opted to place the boy with two gay men. This is where the situation becomes very concerning. Gay rights advocates can relax, I am not going to discuss the wisdom of such a custody arrangement. Rather, I am going to expose reported criminal activity of two men who have no CPS oversight with regard to their parenting of Dylan.

As result of Monika's visitations with Dylan, she has made some frightening discoveries. Dylan has "marks" in sensitive areas consistent with sexual abuse. The information is graphic and I am trying to determine the best method to release this photographic evidence. In addition, Dylan has regressed to defecating in his pants. He has unexplained fits of temper where he talks about cutting off his hands and the hands of others. Think sexually, this boy is describing the mechanics of sexual abuse. As some readers know, I am a former mental health counselor. If this case was taking place in my state of Arizona, I would be compelled to report these facts to the authorities or face going to jail.

Here is another excerpt of an email that Monika sent me with graphic evidence.

These are the photos I sent to my new attorney concerning my son's abuse & neglect, and fear or sexual abuse.

His dermatitis rashes are on his back and shoulder and have been there for at least several weeks, are getting worse. My son is skinnier and has lost weight since in the foster. He last yelled repeatedly that he wants to cut his hands off over and over and over prior to the bath....

Why the Delay In Reporting This Case?

Up until this point, I have been publicly silent on this issue because I was hopeful that Monika and Dylan would be reunited and I did not want to muddy the waters. CPS laid out a set of conditions that Monika had to follow if she was going to get her son back. She has fulfilled all of the unwarranted mandates that CPS laid out in order to get her son back. However, CPS/DFS is delaying the reunification until December of 2014. As I have discovered if this case gets dragged out for 12 months, CPS can take the child and no report requirement with regard to status has to be made to the original parent. This mother has no chance of getting her son back.

I delayed in reporting this case because Monika had a meeting, yesterday, with the Virginia Department of Family Services. I was hoping against all odds that she would get her child back and I did not want to antagonize the authorities. The following email description summarizes Monika's meeting with DFS.

Ok. Met with DFS, all they are trying to do is damage control. I called the police, it's a county over and their process is I have to talk to an officer first and only then it can go higher. I am saving brief clips of proof along with photos and dates, and going tomorrow during the morning as I have a feeling it will take half the day, and during the day. They won't let me speak to a detective until I have enough proof, so I'm compiling!

But yes, I will talk on your show. Send me details of exact date, time, and number.

Monika Wesolowski

Virginia and Illinois Are Conspiring to Steal Dylan From His Mother

On May 15, 2014, I received a very disturbing email from Monika which described the following collusion between the Virginia and Illinois CPS with regard to her son's case.

On 5/15/2014 8:20 PM, Monika Wesolowski wrote:

I just found out from my mom that the department of family services in IL tried to get my parents to sign a statement that I did something to hurt Dylan, and they wouldn't. So when they signed their name saying I was innocent and that they support me and are on my side, IL said that VA won't like that, and that my parents have no chance of getting Dylan since they are on my side. My mom is positive their plan is to adopt my son out into foster and no one in the family will have him. They are positive I need to make this all public. She believes DFS has NO intention of giving me my son back, despite what they tell me. I agree. I will try tomorrow, but I'm 99% sure we need to expose this and I need to file a Police report. (EDITOR'S NOTE: I HAD ADVISED MONIKA TO FILE A SEXUAL ABUSE REPORT AGAINST THE TWO GAY FOSTER PARENTS WITH HER LOCAL POLICE DEPARTMENT BASED UPON THE EVIDENCE THAT SHE HAD SENT ME).

Monika Wesolowski

I responded with the following show announcement:

On May 16, 2014, at 3:05 AM, Dave Hodges <davehodges@thecommonsenseshow.com> wrote:

I am booking you on my show for 2.5 hours from 930pm-midnight, Central, on May 25, 2014. I am going to invite your contact from the organization you told me about. She called but I have been swamped and will catch up with her on Friday or Saturday.

Dave

Dot Connecting

Remember the organizational pyramid I laid out earlier in the article. Obamacare is in charge of all child welfare. The IRS is the enforcement mechanism. HHS and resulting child services is operating under the previously documented UN created document on taking children from parents. HHS is now the de facto parent organization for CPS. Therefore, it makes perfect sense that Illinois, where Monika's parents live, would cooperate with Virginia's CPS in getting Dylan away from Monika's entire family to fulfill their immoral mandate.

Conclusion

This practice is a globalist practice given the fact that the operating procedures come from the UN. Does anyone still believe that anyone can acquiesce and coexist with any New World Order Agenda? I will be providing updates on this most regrettable case in the near future.

What Can You Do To Help?

Below is a fund-raising link that I have created in which we can help Monika obtain an attorney. We still need over $3,000. No amount is too small.

It would suggest the American Militia prep for quick responses to these situations similar to what occurred at the Bundy Ranch. There would need to be an internal alert system set up like an Amber Alert. Count me in.

As I said long ago in my book, the NWO elite get away with committing horrible crimes by committing horrible crimes. That is, they perform acts so monstrous, so senseless, and on such a huge scale that most people refuse to believe it is possible. Decades ago, when I first saw evidence that FDR set us up for Pearl Harbor, I reacted in such a fashion.

The elites have made it very clear for a long time now that they hate the institutions of marriage and family and they want to undermine parental authority and control children completely. Add to this their increasingly militant radical pervert agenda. All of this can be seen in our indoctrination centers (formerly known as "schools") and in the words of such monsters as Queen Reptile (Hillary), who said "it takes a village" to raise children, meaning the government.

But this case is the most infuriating one I have heard of. The Illuminati and their leftist and Muslim thugs are coming out of the closet and revealing their true nature. Had the state taken my daughter when she was a child and handed her over to two lesbians, I would like to believe that I would have hunted them down and killed them. The time for peaceful change and non-violence is long past.

Wouldn't it be great if someone existed that had the power to do something for Ms. Wesolowski? Someone what had taken an oath to uphold the constitution and due process? Oh wait! There is. His name is Stephen Bittle and he's the sheriff of Falls Church, Virginia. Perhaps he should do something to help Ms. Wesolowski like returning her children to her.

His email address is: sheriff-info@fallschurchva.gov and his phone number is: 703-248-5111. Drop him an email or give him a call.

But the real question is why hasn't this guy done anything for this lady? Why has this person who has the authority not lifted a finger to right this wrong? I'll tell you why. Because sheriff's and other law enforcement, er, enforcement officers cannot be relied up to do anything ethical and moral. Like the military, they take an oath to uphold the constitution but in the end do nothing of the kind.

While I agree with much of what you say to pin it just to Obama is disingenuous. What about the changes in HHS funding and research guidelines in 96-97? What about the Bushes and Franklin? What about the ongoing rx between Larry King, N&J Bush? What about The Finders investigation shut down in the 80s, with docs going back to 50s?

This is where we are, you can no longer play by their rules, their judges, et al. Monika needs to get a new identity for herself and son, establish herself in the fact that she will have to rescue her child for the two gay men who have been given custody. She has no choice, if that means hiring armed men to do so, then she ends to do that. Will they hunt her down? Yes. Will she be righteous in the eyes of God? Yes

Save your child just as if anyone else had kidnapped them! Then RUN with him into exusion another country etc if necessary.

I don't understand this. If this happened to my son, there would be a pile of dead bodies. The CPS agents, members of the SWAT teams, the police, the 2 gay abusers. Doesn't anyone understand? Exposing this accomplishes NOTHING because the people that can implement justice are on their side. Revenge and violence is all we have left. It's already game over unfortunately. God will not spare anyone these travesties, and whether or not they will ever be avenged is questionable. It's time to take matters into our own hands. I'd rather die, then live in a world where this can happen and nothing at all can be done

All well and good. Where is Dylan's Dad in all of this? Hmmm... let's see... uhhh. He's the one that INITIATED this whole mess!!!! Why don't we talk to HIM? I mean, a son like Dylan has BOTH a Mom AND a Dad. Right? I would hope in doing your "investigative reporting" you might also interview the Dad, since it is HIS son that is also suffering, not just the Mom's son. I read that two gay guys have custody. Why doesn't the DAD have custody? I mean, usually in custody cases, when they rule the Mom is "unfit", then they give the child to the Dad, RIGHT? I am uncomfortable with this reporting of this case cos Dad ain't in the picture anywhere. A nice and healthy honest interview with "Dad" may help round things out. Maybe he is a creep. Maybe he is an child abuser. Maybe he's in prison. But it would be nice to have that perspective, TOO. I have met to many "crazy" ex-wives who hurl all kinds of "threats" at ex-husbands only to be the culprits themselves.

EDITOR'S NOTE: THE DAD IS A PROBLEM- I DID NOT ELABORATE BECAUSE IT IS NOT MONIKA'S MAIN ISSUE AT THIS TIME- HOWEVER, THE DAD WILL BE OF NE HEP TO HIS SON

Lucio May 17, 2014 at 10:18 am

I'm 42, this happened to me as a child. This is not new, it is old news and has been happening over the years in our society. My mother died when I was born, my father passed away a year later and I became property of the state of California. I grew up in a orphanage with Catholic nuns as mother figures. All I can remember now is lots's of abuse(physical) by them. Even now as a man of 42, I tremble when I see a nun in public. I don't know why I fear them so much, but my guess is that they did unspeakable things to me as an infant that the memory of them is ingrained within my psyche. I was fostered out to several family's over the next 16 years. These were not typical families, never can I remember any of them praying for their food before eating. Always it seemed that the men in these family's never had a job. They always stayed at home and lived off the government checks that they received from having children like me living with them, they always had other children and especially more little girls in the same predicament as myself in those homes. I can still recall hearing the moaning and the noises that these men were making while raping the little girls that were staying in the same house with me. I saw first hand the abuses that they inflict on little children that have no idea what is happening to them and why no one is there to help. Several times I had to fight off several men who tried to rape me. These were the men that the government deemed worthy to have as foster parents for other people's children. Several times I ran away from these homes in the middle of the night and would sleep in laundromats, in cars that were left open, under bridges and alley ways and wherever I could find shelter. Every time I got caught by the government enforcers(pigs) they would haul me back to the pedophiles homes and the lies would ensue about what a horrible child I was and how I was a trouble maker and that I would end up in prison and so on and so on. Lies after lies, what can a young person do in a world governed by adults? And if those adults are the sleaze of the world what can they possibly do to defend themselves? I literally had to stab one of my so called foster parents to get away from him trying to rape me in the middle of the night. I spent 9 months in juvie(juvenile detention). All this time I was telling a lawyer that was representing me that the man who I stabbed was molesting a little girl named Maggie that was also a foster child living in the same house at the same time that I lived there. I liked Maggie we had gotten close and had learned to defend ourselves from the adults in that home. A year later that man raped and murdered Maggie, he was chased down to some motel somewhere and they surrounded him and he blew his own brains out. Two weeks later I stood before a judge and told him that the same man had tried to rape me and that I slept with a kitchen knife under my pillow and that I stabbed him to defend myself. The judge threw out the case and also said something to my lawyer about me staying quiet and it being in my best interest or something to that effect, and that I would be Emancipated and that I wouldn't have to live with other people anymore. I went straight back into the streets and lived in skid row with other homeless people. I met up with some old men who taught me how to work and to live better. I became a truck driver at twenty and left California for good. I have never been back and do not want to go back. That state is responsible for so much badness in my life. I hate the government bureaucracy and the coldness of it along with all the mismanagement that comes with it and the irresponsibility that it is to be blamed for. All of America it seems is going into the same abyss, this is why I think it might actually be better to just leave it and let it fall into oblivion.

Absolutely astounding that this happens in the modern age. How this can possibly be construed as "child protective" is beyond me ! Everything in this world is out of kilter. What further proof do we need of the King of Chaos with stories like this. How these thought processes are maintained is just incredulous. Our society has degraded to State sponsored kidnapping by moral police against natural law by denying private individuality. Dave & Friends these are signs the Tsumami of injustice is starting to recede from the shore. We are being tricked and trapped at every facet of life to facilitate the "plan" for Humanity. Compare the present day to this Manifesto <http://laissez-fairerepublic.com/tenplanks.html>

This blackest evil is largely the doing of a centuries old global cult of Luciferians who use these children in ritual sex acts (Stanley Kubrick touched on this cult in "Eyes Wide Shut") as well as placing other sadistic psychopaths in religious roles) , giving these "saintly" psychos almost instant control over large numbers of potential victims (children in particular) it's no accident that catholic priests who molest boys are protected by the Vatican. These demons harvest the suffering of children like a solar panel harvest sunlight, and rejoice when a child so badly abused becomes an Abuser by adulthood from a kind of hellish stockholm syndrome

These same monsters are also in Educational roles as Teachers, Principals and Guidance Counselors , I know of instances of female teachers for instance that engaged in psychological BDSM with children as young as 10yrs old.

CPS and other institutions are grinding these helpless children in a "Charnel Mill" but the Wrath of The Lamb will avenge them once and for all.

If someone to my son, they wouldn't have him for long...they don't play by the rules—I don't play by the rules. It would be my pleasure to die in the process of wreaking hell on those responsible for hurting my son. May they fry in the Lake of Fire for eternity!

The reason that sex trafficking is so prevalent is that liberals do not think that pedophilia, incest, rape, sodomy, torture and selling children for sex is a crime. And they don't care that after the wealthy liberal elite pedophile is done with the child, the child is murdered. Liberals want the world's population to be reduced to 500 million and selling unwanted children is a good way to reduce the world's population if the child is going to end up dead. The majority of the people living in the United States of America who also happen to be liberals do not consider sex trafficking to be a crime. So this problem is not going away soon.

Dave, You mentioned Oklahoma. You wrote an article back in August 2013 about the 78 children who were lost while under the care of Oklahoma 'protective services'. In that article you called out one of the responsible employees, Millie Carpenter. The following webpage, <http://www.okdhs.org/programsandservices/permpln/default.htm>, shows that after 9 months she is still in the same organization and in the same responsible position.

American mom May 17, 2014 at 4:32 pm

Hi Dave – although most of your readers may be shocked, I know dozens of moms who had their kids stolen by NY Courts or ACS, or a combination. The most prominent national story is Holly Collins who sought asylum in the Netherlands with her 3 kids to prevent their continued abuse. CPS was complicit if I recall – No Way Out But One is the movie about her saga. Another mom got asylum from American Injustice Court Corps in Britain.

Dave, CPS or ACS or DYFUS or whatever alphabet name your state agency has – they ALL steal children, for profit. SN children are an extra $30k, above the usual $3-6k placement fee.

If you go to the Center for Judicial Accountability, you can see horrific testimony from parents about their kids being stolen. Two of them are lawyers. This is featured in the Sampson Committees in NY in maybe 2008, two sessions, and at the Moreland Commission in September 2013 (victims start halfway in, after commission members use up half the 3 hours with speeches). Get in touch with Elena Sassower from CJA, she has catalogued and documented hundreds of true stories over 30 years.

Monica Getz started the Coalition for Family Justice, after her 18 year battle. She was married to Stan Getz a jazz musician. Monica can tell you hundreds of stories as well.

Tell that woman to rescind all the signatures on BC, SS, etc and file a UCC 1 with her son as S/A. She must also rebut the presumption in an affidavit her kid is a legal entity or fiction and file it with CPS/Courts.

Lawless America was an entire movement dedicated to exposing this. Bill Windsor had hundreds of thousands of followers, the Gov took him down as a "terrorist." Get some of Bill's footage about CPS!

Dave, this is so prevalent, but most just don't know yet. Hello Justina Pelletier from Mass! Stolen by CPS after routine hospital care, parents' rights terminated.

We are swirling down the toilet bowl, America the beautiful. Passive resistance seems futile Dave, it's escalating.

Dave,

I agree with what everyone so far is saying. If you are a parent, like me, then you could probably come up with some very good reasons for revenge although this would have to be carefully planned out and orchestrated. The one person that I really agree with is Gene Roberts. He said, "Dave – Posts are being censored from going through." Now, I know you hate hearing the same complaint over and over again, BUT WHEN ARE YOU GOING TO CHANGE YOUR SERVICE PROVIDER OR DO SOMETHING ABOUT THIS ISSUE... (Now, for whoever you are that is reading this after I try to post it, then deleting it – why don't you quit wasting my time and just take a flying leap into a good hot lake of fire now! You are going to eventually be there for eternity anyway....)

Dave, Are you aware of the Justina Pelletier case in Conn.? <http://libertycounsel.com/2014/02/end-the-pelletier-nightmare/>
The system is has turned on the switch in high gear and the agenda to make children wards of the state is now "on".

This stuff has to end in America. Just like we cannot have another Bush, Clinton, or Obama in high office again. The country needs to pray to get back on the high road and to stay there. Thanks Dave for your courage and success in getting material like this out to the public.

It's exactly the same in the UK. The major problem is these people are protected. It goes right to very top of power within the Police, Judiciary, Politics, clergy and Royalty.

These people are above the law, but they are not above natural law and can be tackled by Common Law.

Perhaps the US can do what this amazing man and his supporters are doing. All the advice needed can be obtained from these sites.

"HOWEVER, WHAT YOU ARE SUGGESTING WOULD LEAD TO A BLOOD BATH AND ONLY MAKE THINGS WORSE"

How much worse can it be? The absolute worst thing that can happen is death – which is infinitely preferable to having your child being the toy-boy of two spiders in human flesh.

As Thomas Jefferson wrote, the tree of liberty needs to refreshed from time to time by the blood of both patriots and tyrants.

It is a known fact that enough people are fed up with the present democrat/republican party that a third party could emerge rapidly. A single party i.e. the red/blue party has already shown how dangerous they can be, therefore a new third party could equally be dangerous. However there seems at this time to be no choice except a third party or violent revolution. A third party that contains people that are former democrats, republicans and previous third party members that all have to set aside all the B.S. you have been told all your life and agree to a single basic manifesto could win both houses and the presidency in one single sweep. They would have to act rapidly roll back the federal government to its original powers of jurisdiction only over US military bases, US territories and the District of Columbia and that's it. This manifesto would include the basics of returning to the Constitution, the Bill of Rights and a belief in a Creator of all the known and unknown. No communism, no socialism, no fascism and no one race enslaving the others by controlling the currency, education, media or branches of government. This will allow this transformation to one party to be at the state and federal level simultaneously. Third party candidates will have to be incredibly constitutionally knowledgeable people, and will probably have to be written in on ballots. So there will be a lot of paper ballots, because electronic ballots can not be trusted. The Federal Reserve and the IRS would be shut down immediately and all judges would be replaced. All federal agencies would be disbanded and reduced to state control. This is the only option. It will be very, very difficult after this transfer of power, but it is infinitely better than the present situation. The elite may kill us all rather than let this take place. Somebody better write this manifesto and get it posted on a website pronto for people to see and secretly agree to quick or most of you will die of starvation and warfare after the EMP attack and all of the survivors will die in the FEMA camps, or fighting the hordes of enemies flooding into the former USA.

If this is all true, then Satan is indeed lord of this world. Anyone involved in this child trafficking through CPS? You are all going to burn in everlasting torment, and I hope to Almighty God that you all meet your demise asap. What a sick damn world this is.
